

Maria Matuz is a clinical pharmacist and programmatic mathematician, working as a senior lecturer at the Department of Clinical Pharmacy. She is a member of the Hungarian Society for Clinical Biostatistics (since 2004), and author of the Drug Utilization Research Methods and Applications Data Visualisation Chapter (Wiley, 2016). Her special interest fields are pharmacoepidemiology of antibiotics and methodological issues.

